

FIRE PREVENTION ORDER NO. AZ-100-06-01
FIRE RESTRICTIONS
BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT
ARIZONA STRIP DISTRICT

Under the authority of the Federal Land Management Policy and Management Act of 1976 (43 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.) and pursuant to 43 CFR 9212.0-6 and 43 CFR 9212.1-4, these Fire Restrictions apply to all BLM lands in the areas described below for the time and duration the order shall stay in effect.

(1) No open fires, including charcoal, will be allowed on lands managed by the BLM Arizona Strip District, including the Grand-Canyon-Parashant National Monument, the Vermilion Cliffs National Monument, and remainder of BLM-managed lands on the Arizona Strip, except in developed campgrounds and administrative sites. This includes the National Park Service-managed portion of the Grand Canyon-Parashant National Monument. Gas stoves are permitted.

(2) No smoking is allowed in these areas except in buildings, vehicles, developed campgrounds and administrative sites.

(3) These restrictions will be in effect on 12:01 a.m. May 26, 2006, and shall stay in effect until the fire danger in these areas has been reduced to a level that is safe. The Arizona Strip District Manager will make the determination as to when the restrictions will be lifted based on the fire danger and environmental conditions.

(4) These restrictions are in compliance with provisions of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 (43 U.S.C. 1701) and 43 CFR 9212.0-6 and 43 CFR 9212.1-4. The penalties of this Fire Prevention Order is provided in 43 CFR 9212.4. Any person who knowingly and willfully violates the regulations at 9212.1 of this title shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine of not more than $1,000 or to imprisonment of not more than 12 months or both.

Due to the extreme fire danger and dry conditions, and in the interest of public safety, these restrictions shall be implemented to minimize the potential for catastrophic wildfires and to protect human life.

Signed at St. George, Utah, the 25th day of May, 2006

Scott R Florence - District Manager, Bureau of Land Management, Arizona Strip District
